At 3 p.m. on Saturday 18 June, the MIMO 1000 Miglia Journalist Parade will also take place, the parade of the most accredited automotive journalists who, driving the latest cars of the automobile manufacturers taking part in MIMO, will have the opportunity to take a lap of the track and on the flyovers of the Temple of Speed and to try their hand at the same time trial faced by the 1000 Miglia crews.

The spectacle continues in the paddock with the cars participating in the 1000 Miglia car display, the supercars of the MIMO 1000 Miglia Trophy collectors and The Special Vehicles of Matteo Valenti organised by Automoto.

A QR code for all information

All the models on display in Milan will be identified by a QR code on the totem which, when scanned, will refer to a dedicated page on the website where the technical data sheet, photos and videos, and all commercial information, such as special offers dedicated to MIMO, will be available. The map and list of cars on display will soon be available in the dedicated section.

More than 500,000 visitors are expected at the second edition of the MIMO Milano Monza Motor Show, organised with the contribution of the Lombardy Region, in collaboration with the Municipalities of Milan and Monza, ACI and ACI Milano. Visitors will be able to access all areas in Milan and Monza free of charge thanks to the MIMO Pass, the free electronic accreditation downloadable from the website www.milanomonza.com, which will guarantee conventions with hotels, tourist attractions, museums, and will also give the possibility of arriving in Milan with Trenitalia's Le Freccie trains with discounts of up to 50%.
